BATTLE HYMN OF THE CARTERS

(Tune: Battle Hymn of the Republic)

The ancient clan of Carter raised their standards to the sky;
They held their name in honor and their aims were ever high;
They always did their duty and were not afraid to die.
The clan goes marching on!

Chorus: Glory to our grand old family,
Virile, worthy, brave and loyal!
Glory to the name of Carter!
The clan goes marching on!

When danger threatened country or a battle to be won,
Or righteous causes need defenders or work to be done,
Brave Carters were right there, and never did a Carter run.
The clan goes marching on!

Samuel, Thomas, John and Giles were fathers of our clan;
Posterity of Lawrence and Lorenzo never ran.
Herman was quite virile, Matthew was a sturdy man.
The clan goes marching on!

Sir William was the mayor, Matthew noted, so they say;
Lawrence was the Baron of Exchequer in his day.
John Carter was the hero who was killed at Mobile Bay.
The clan goes marching on!

Thomas was a preacher of the gospel at Woburn;
"Oakland" is a Mecca to which Carters oft' return;
Of the lives and deeds of Carters, how we love to learn!
The clan goes marching on!

Lorenzo built his cabin in a wilderness of green,
Where Cleveland stands today—as fine a town as we have seen.
The Carters keep their promises and what they say they mean.
The clan goes marching on!

The Carter sons have courage any task or foe to face;
The Carter girls are lovely with their beauty, charm and grace;
The Carter leaven is a blessing to the human race.
The clan goes marching on!

The Carter Clan is mighty—with three hundred thousand strong.
In seventy-six, five hundred Carters fought to right a wrong.
Twenty towns bear Carter names. Sure, let us sing that song—
The clan goes marching on!

(A) INTRODUCTION

THE Carter Family is among the forty-nine "best families" selected by the American Historical-Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past few years.

The Carter Family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the United States, its members having played important roles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Carters have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

In references No. 7 and No. 10 we find the following regarding the origin and meaning of the name Carter:

The name of Carter is derived from the occupation of "carter." Thus he is commonly set down in the thirteenth century, the "cart" itself being the old Norman-French "charette", so familiarized to us by our present Bible version as "chariot." In the 1611 edition of the Bible it is even spelled "charet."

The "Charters" are relics of the fuller form. In the Issue Rolls we find recorded that the master of the king's wardrobe in money, paid to John le Charer a certain amount for making a chariot for the use of the king's sister, Lady Eleanor.

The name is from the Norman vocabulary, the Saxon word in general use being "wagon" or "wain" rather than cart.

Some of the various forms are as follows: Caretarius (1273), Carettes, Careter and even Cartwright.

The data in this volume is gathered from reliable sources. We have selected what we consider the most important material. Many of the daughters and sons for whom no issue was shown, have been omitted from the pedigrees. A missing symbol indicates that a name has been omitted. Those desiring further information are advised to consult the volumes mentioned in the list of References.

The compiler hopes that, in producing this volume he is bringing to the Carter Family information which will be of interest and value to them, and that he is rendering an important service to the public. He and his associates will be glad to give their co-operation to members of the family who are interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published.

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are children of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding numbers. All persons in each group bearing the same letter as a part of their numbers, are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows. However, some of our material is published as copied from various records without rearrangement according to this system.

Generations	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Symbols	(1), etc.	(A), etc.	(a), etc.	1, etc.	A, etc.
Generations	6th	7th	8th	9th	10th
Symbols	a, etc.	(I), etc.	(i), etc.	I, etc.	i, etc.

Abbreviations: Add., address; b., born; ch., children; coll., college; d. died; d. y., died young; d. w. i., died without issue; dau., daughter; grad., graduated; l., lives, lived; m., married, moved; s., son, succeeded; d. s. p., died without issue; d. v. p., died before father; univ., university.

(B) THE CARTER COAT OF ARMS

A COAT of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah's sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Carter Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is Arms of the Carters of London, granted 1612. Coats of Arms very similar to it are used by the Carters of Northwold and by many others. The Carters of Eccleshall Castle and numerous other branches of the Carter family use Coats of Arms resembling it.

This is the most widely used of all Carter Coats of Arms. It is described in BURKE'S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE'S LANDED GENTRY, BURKE'S PEERAGE AND BARONETCY and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations. Crozier records it for Rev. Thomas Carter, of Watertown, Mass., 1635, and for O. S. C. Carter, of Philadelphia, Pa. It has been used for generations by their descendants and by many other American branches of the Carter family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms	Argent, a chevron between three cart wheels vert.	On a silver shield, a chevron between three green cart wheels.
Crest	On a mount vert, a greyhound sejant argent, sustaining a shield of the last charged with a cart wheel vert.	On a green mount, a silver greyhound in sitting position, holding a silver shield on which is a green cart wheel.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said "Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families."

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the Carter family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms in proper colors.

(C) ANCIENT CARTER FAMILIES

(K) CARTER TOWNS, ETC.

There are in the United States towns as follows:

CARTER: Ark., Ky., Miss., Mont., Okla., S. Dak., Tenn., Wis., Wyo.; CARTER CAMP: Pa.; CARTERET: N. J.; CARTERS: Ga.; CARTERS BRIDGE: Va.; CARTERSBURG: Ind.; CARTERS CREEK: Tenn.; CARTERS MILLS: N. C., Va.; CARTERSVILLE: Ga., Iowa, Mont., Okla., S. C., Va.; CARTERTON: Va.; CARTERVILLE: Ill., Mo. There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "Carter." This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(L) CARTER CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama	199	Maine	120	Oklahoma	158
Arizona	32	Maryland	147	Oregon	33
Arkansas	65	Massachusetts	632	Pennsylvania	570
California	960	Michigan	332	Rhode Island	64
Colorado	109	Minnesota	104	South Carolina	21
Connecticut	155	Mississippi	48	South Dakota	4
District of Columbia	198	Missouri	261	Tennessee	374
Delaware	21	Montana	45	Texas	723
Florida	262	Nebraska	71	Utah	61
Georgia	255	Nevada	7	Vermont	20
Idaho	35	New Hampshire	94	Virginia	290
Illinois	566	New Jersey	304	Washington	63
Indiana	414	New Mexico	5	West Virginia	120
Iowa	133	New York	659	Wisconsin	49
Kansas	158	North Carolina	119	Wyoming	13
Kentucky	190	North Dakota	1
Louisiana	83	Ohio	593	Total	9940

To secure an estimate of the "Carter population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

	(a) multiply by
Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted	2
Half of the Carters reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us	2
There is an average of more than four persons in each American family	4
Since Carter daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Carter sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Carter (though it is much easier to locate the latter)	2
By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of	32

Conservative estimate of the Carter population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Carter and one-half of whom bear other names..... 318,080

The estimated Carter population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. There are Carters in every state of the Union. The Carter population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(M) RELIGIONS OF THE CARTERS

For several centuries the Carters lived in England, North Ireland and Scotland. Most of the British (excepting those living in South Ireland), and, likewise, the Carters were and are of the Protestant faith.

There are a few Carters of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed fifteen per cent. of the entire Carter population.

The Carters who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, through their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Carters in America who are church members, at least ninety per cent. are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of 37 Carters appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: CONGREGATIONALIST, 1; EPISCOPAL, 5; METHODIST, 1; METHODIST EPISCOPAL, 2; PRESBYTERIAN, 3; OTHER PROTESTANTS, 2; RELIGION NOT STATED, 23.
